WHY IS IT?

Why is it that the goldbug press pretended that Bryan was overwhelmingly defeated when he received about a million more votes than any other Presidential candidate ever received previous to the election of 1896? Because they want to conceal their corruption, fraud, and coercion by pretending that their victory was an uprising of the people.

How can the enormous vote cast in the contested States in the late Presidential election be accounted for? By millions of money, intimidation, and fraud.

Why do the Republicans appear to be in such a hurry to increase the surplus in the treasury when there is already looked up in Government vaults $225,000,000 of the people's money? Because they pretend to think that more taxation and not more money with which to pay taxes is what the people need.

Why will not the gold standard furnish more money? Because we are a debtor nation, and the creditor nations are buying up more than double the product of gold every year and hoarding it for war purposes.

Why does Cleveland's administration constantly encroach upon the legislative department in the administration of the laws and in determining the relations which this country holds to foreign powers? Because the goldites, of which he is one, are so much attached to the financial policy of the monarchies of the old world that they are desirous of imitating them in all things to the extent of consolidating the powers of the government in the Executive and subverting the government established by the Constitution.

Why did the goldite Democrats nominate Palmer and Buckner for President and Vice-President? For the purpose of electing McKinley.

Why did they want McKinley elected? Because the platform upon which he made his canvass was in favor of the single gold standard and recognized the supremacy of the money country in financial matters.—Silver Knight

Wright's Ruse.

Legislative aspirants have become a pestilence to Howard E. Wright, formerly of Carson, who was elected to the Assembly in California. They chased him seven blocks without giving him time to draw a breath and he stood on the brink of insanity. The following story is from the Oakland Times:

Howard E. Wright, Assemblyman-elect from the Fifty-first district, has a twin brother, D. C. Wright, who is as like him as one pea in a pod is like another. Their features are very similar, both wear Van Dyke beards, and both and their vision by the use of glasses. Moreover, they dress very much alike and it is a keen observer who can distinguish them apart. Indeed, their near friends often mistake Howard E. for the brother, and vice versa.

And so the brother who is not an Assemblyman is very often besieged by anxious constituents who want offices or desire some measure advanced. They talk to him on the boats and on the cars and on the streets, and they even follow him home and pour their aspirations into his ears. The man who is not a Salon told his brother of the way he was badgered and a happy thought struck the latter.

"When they tackle you," he said, "you can truthfully say that it is a mistake, and I will tell them to go, and see you. Of course I will not prevaricate and say I am not Assemblyman-elect Wright, but I can give the impression easy enough without that."

The scheme has worked pretty satisfactorily and those seeking legislative favors have grown weary.

It is suspected that the Assemblyman made good use of his brother during the recent campaign, for it was remarked at the time that the insurance man was numerous about Alameda county during the few weeks preceding election and that his energy must have been great to have kept up under the strain. There were several other candidates in the Fifty-first, but Wright wore them all out and was elected by a comfortable majority.
